Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills (IOLS) Training

Presented by SFBAC Golden Gate District

The Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills (IOLS) course builds and expands on the concepts and themes introduced in Scoutmaster Position-Specific Training and Varsity Coach Position-Specific Training. The course provides Scouters with the confidence to take youth into the outdoors.

This hands-on program gives adult leaders a practical introduction to the patrol method of a boy-led troop teaching many of the practical outdoor skills they need to lead Scouts in the out-of-doors.

The following meals are included in the registration fee: Saturday lunch and dinner and Sunday breakfast.

Pre-requisite: You must have completed the Scoutmaster Position-Specific or Varsity Coach Position-Specific Training and current with your Youth Protection Training.

You must be a registered BSA adult leader and participate in uniform for the training.

Who should attend? Scoutmasters, Assistant Scoutmasters, Varsity Leaders, Committee Chair, and Committee Members

What to bring? A confirmation letter will be emailed to you on what to bring.

You will need your BSA ID number when you check in for the course.
